

Oh no! Rudolph's missing!
Santa needs him to fly!
We have to find him!
Will you help us please try?

Come on, to the North Pole we must go!

To check with his pals
and see what they know!

Don't worry Rudolph!
Because here we come!
We're going to find you
Starting with clue #1

Hey look! It's Dasher!

He reminded us his birthday was yesterday
And all the reindeer stayed up late

Maybe we should check his stall where he sleeps

To see if he's even awake!

Oh shoot! No Rudolph! But look, its Dancer!

Maybe I can help with clue #2 Rudolph was up early, so he's definitely awake

I saw him last in the kitchen
You know he can't resist Mrs. Claus's pancakes!

Still no sign of Rudolph, but Prancer's
finishing breakfast!

Hey guys, gotta run! I'm off to my yoga class.

It keeps me surprisingly fit!
Flying next to Vixen, I need all the help I can get!

Let's see if I can help with clue #3
If I were you, I'd try the North Pole Library.

Rudolph likes to mentally prepare for the big flight.

He always reads, Pete the Cat Saves Christmas! before our special night.

Well there's Vixen and Rudolph's favorite book
But no sign of him among the stacks
Let's see if Vixen knows where to find
The leader of this reindeer pack

Well guys you're right.
We'll be struggling tonight without our red-nosed chief
For clue#4, I can tell you I saw Rudolph headed
For
the bucket of leftover Halloween treats.

I guess we missed him but look, it's Comet!
Still no sign of Rudolph, so I guess we'll keep looking

Well now, I think I can help with clue #5

You know, I would have energy to burn

After a big breakfast and Halloween treats

In fact, I think an Elf saw Rudolph running down main street.

Outside, no luck, but there's Cupid coming out of the bake shop!

Well hello there young visitors!
With all the commotion, I almost forgot
To pick up Santa's favorite cookies from his favorite shop!

I bet I can help you with a clue, #6.

I did see him whizzing by,
But he appeared to be losing steam
I think he needs a good long nap.

Yes sir, I bet right now, he's dreamin a little dream

The reindeer stalls are almost empty, but wait, hey it's Donner!

What in the world are you doing?

Oh, I ordered matching holiday jackets for us to wear as a team

I bet I have an idea about Rudolph,
clue #7

I think he just wants to get clean.

He can't fly on Christmas Eve all muddy and dirty

He's knows that's not allowed

I would check to see if he's taking a bath

We all work hard to make Santa proud

Still no Rudolph!
But look, there's Blitzen,
Maybe he'll know what to do.

I do have clue #8, a special note from Mrs. Claus
She writes that Rudolph is quite safe
And he's sorry for all the trouble
he's caused.

He is in the workshop with the elves

Working on some art
A self portrait for Santa
A sweet gift from the heart.

Rudolph wanted to Santa to always be surrounded by those who care
Now he would have his picture to view

Even if Rudolph wasn't there.
